Brooks & Perkins Inc. said yesterday that it would renew its motion for a temporary restraining order in a United States District Court in Michigan to block the AAR Corporation from buying more of its stock and to try to force AAR to divest the Brooks & Perkins stock it already owns.

The announcement followed an earlier statement by AAR that Brooks & Perkins had withdrawn its motion last Friday. AAR holds about 24 percent of Brooks & Perkins outstanding shares.

In its statement, however, Brooks & Perkins said it had tried to resolve the issues between the two companies through direct discussions, but that these had "proved to be unproductive." It said yesterday afternoon that it would "turn to the courts" to settle the issue.
