

The Sunday Times notes that the 3M group has developed a new computer disc.

77 words

24 June 1984

The Sunday Times

ST

71

English

© 1984 Times Newspapers Ltd. All rights reserved

The new disc, developed in the US, is manufactured from strong plastic and is rigid, with two rims, one around the edge and the other around the central hole. The rigidity means that the disc can spin at high speed, and that it will not warp. Information can be packed tightly on a skin of plastic and magnetic oxide stretched over the disc.

Document st00000020011205dg6o006cx

Search Summary

Text
Date	All Dates
Source	Newspapers: All
Author	All Authors
Company	3M Company
Subject	All Subjects
Industry	All Industries
Region	United States
Language	English
Results Found	4,351
Timestamp	17 July 2018 11:24