At St. Anne's Episcopal Church in Annapolis, Md., yesterday. Florence Margaret Long, the daughter of Mrs. Theron N. Bucy of St. Petersburg, Fla., and David P. Long of Annapolis, was married to Robert Michael Dougherty Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty of Washington.

The Rev. James Madison performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Dougherty, who is known as Meg, is an intern at T. Rowe Price Associates, an investment concern in Baltimore. She graduated from the Oak Hall School in Gainesville, Fla., and Johns Hopkins University. Her father is an analyst for the 3M Corporation in Alexandria, Va. Her mother, Mollie Bucy, is assistant to the president of the Morton F. Plant Hospital in Clearwater, Fla. The bride is a granddaughter of Robert Roy of Baltimore, who retired as chairman of Washington College in Chestertown, Md., and is dean emeritus of Johns Hopkins.

Mr. Dougherty, who graduated from Fairfield University, is an account executive with Kidder, Peabody & Company in Baltimore. His father is a lawyer.
