HUNTSVILLE, Ala.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 5, 2002--ADTRAN, Inc. (NASDAQ:ADTN) announced today that H. Fenwick Huss has been elected to its board of directors.

ADTRAN, Inc. Chairman and CEO Mark Smith said, "We are pleased to have an individual of Dr. Huss' stature joining our board of directors. He has very broad knowledge of global business issues and is well suited to serve our board."

Dr. Huss is Associate Dean of the J. Mack Robinson College of Business at Georgia State University where he was previously Director of the School of Accountancy. Also, he served on the faculty at the University of Maryland.

He is the author of numerous articles published in the Journal of Accounting Research, Journal of Business Ethics, Research in Accounting Ethics, Journal of Accounting, Auditing, and Finance and others.

Dr. Huss has lectured extensively in the People's Republic of China on business information needs in transition economies. Also, he is a visiting professor at the Universite Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne.

Dr. Huss is a graduate of the University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill), and he holds a master's degree in economics from the University of Connecticut and a doctorate in accountancy from the University of Tennessee.

Also, ADTRAN Inc. announced today that Lonnie S. McMillian and James L. North, who have resigned from the board, have been appointed as members emeritus of its board of directors. ADTRAN's Board of Directors has made these changes in advance of the anticipated future independence standards of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and NASDAQ's proposed requirements for listed companies.

ADTRAN, Inc. is an established supplier of advanced transmission products that provide users access to today's expansive telecommunications networks. Widely deployed in carrier, enterprise and global networks worldwide, ADTRAN products support all major digital access technologies. ADTRAN equipment is widely deployed by major Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers, Interexchange Carriers, ISPs, Competitive Local Exchange Carriers, international service providers, public and private enterprises, and original equipment manufacturers.
