The marriage of Rosalind Jeanne Moore, a freelance researcher in New York, to Jeffrey Calhoun Carter, a partner in the New York law firm of Henderson Koplik & Carter, took place in Santa Barbara, Calif., yesterday. The Rev. Karl Tuttle performed the ceremony at the First Christian Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore of Santa Barbara, attended the University of California at Los Angeles and graduated from the United States International University in San Diego. Her father, who is retired, was vice president of Butts Buick Inc., a Santa Barbara dealership.

Mr. Carter, son of Mrs. Robert Calhoun Carter of Strafford, Pa., and the late Mr. Carter, graduated from Brown University and the Columbia Law School. His father was sales and advertising representative in Philadelphia for the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company. His grandfather, the late Albert Gallatin Preston, was budget director of the City of Buffalo.

Christine Johnson and Peter Preston Broderick, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the couple as matron of honor and best man.
